Adam Peled's Bar Mitzvah Project

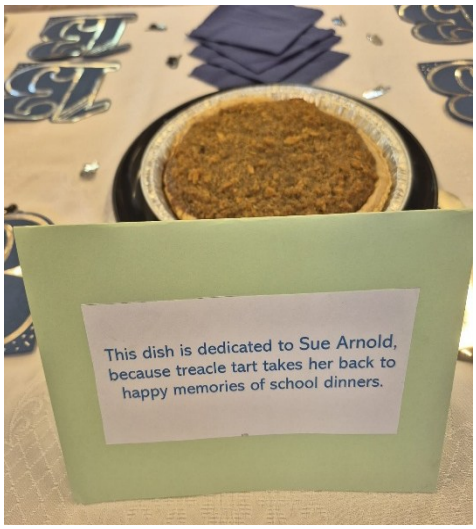
For my bar mitzvah project, I interviewed older members of the community to find out what their favourite foods were to eat as children, and why. My idea was that eating these dishes would bring back happy memories for them. Some of the group are here today, and I've prepared the dishes, which are listed below and will be served at the kiddush.

Helen Grunberg - apfelmus

Janet Friedlander - Dobos torte

Jackie Levy - custard Danish pastries

Lilian Levy - apple cake

Philippa Strauss - chocolate biscuit cake


Sue Arnold - treacle tart
