

Music at Belsize presents...

Against all Odds – a concert for Holocaust Memorial Day

Sunday 25 January 2015 3pm

Three distinguished cantors, Jason Green (the Cantor and Director of Community Development at New London Synagogue), Paul Heller (the sixth Cantor of Belsize Square Synagogue) and Gedalya Alexander (a freelance cantor who served as Chazan of the prestigious Finchley Synagogue until 2007), together with choirs and instrumentalists, take us on a journey through the fulsome participation of Jews in European Culture to their complete exclusion from it after 1933 - and finally to a new emerging Jewish culture in the State of Israel in a thoughtful and ultimately uplifting concert marking Holocaust Memorial Day.

Tickets: £15.00

Belsize Square Synagogue, 51 Belsize Square, London, NW3 4HX
